

How can OhioLINK help you?

OhioLINK is a group of 120 Ohio college and university libraries, plus the State Library of Ohio, working together to get you the information you need, whenever and wherever you need it.

As a member of OhioLINK, your library provides access to more multidisciplinary and scholarly content than the average ivy league school, with new materials added continuously.

Six ways to get started

1. Go to your library

OhioLINK provides access to a wealth of resources, and your library may have more. Visit in-person or go to your library web site. Bonus: Librarians are on site and want to help. Just ask!

2. Get materials fast —print and eBooks

olc1.ohiolink.edu

Search over 46 million items via the OhioLINK Central Catalog. Request books, periodicals, maps, music scores, audio visual materials and more. Pick them up at any OhioLINK member library in 3–5 days. Instantly access OhioLINK eBooks. You can also use your valid institutional ID to borrow from member libraries in person.

3. Library closed? Download articles instantly

Quickly search over 26 million articles spanning multiple subject areas using the Electronic Journal Center.

4. Find subject-specific research databases.ohiolink.edu

Choose from more than 100 research databases to find articles in a specific subject area.

5. Access electronic book collections

eBooks.ohiolink.edu

OhioLINK's collection of over 125,000 eBooks includes encyclopedias, dictionaries and computer and technology titles.

6. Need a break? Request books and media from participating public libraries

Look for the SearchOhio button in the OhioLINK Central Catalog to search and request materials from over 20 public libraries in Ohio.

Additional Tips

Off-campus access

- For access to some resources you will be prompted for your campus ID information.
- Contact your campus library if you have any questions, do not know your ID information or are having problems logging in.

Use advanced search options

- You can make searches more effective by using advanced search options.
- For assistance, ask your librarian or use the database's help function.

Renew often and return on time!

- Renew materials up to six times via your library's website, unless another user has requested them.
- Fines are charged for overdue OhioLINK books and library materials—return or renew on time!
